HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 28.

The Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—It is thought that the forthcoming Government statement of the public debt will show a reduction of about two millions, notwithstanding the heavy payments of the Government during the current month.

Young Lady Burned at a Ball.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 27.—Emma Gardner was horribly burned last night at a Nahant ball, her dress taking fire from a lamp on the floor of the dressing room. Her recovery is doubtful

Secretary Rawlins Better.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Secretary Rawlins has recovered sufficiently to visit the War Department this morning.

Prince Arthur.

HALIFAX, Aug 27.—Prince Arthur was entertained to day on board the French frigate Semians, by Rear Admiral Metgul and officers. The Prince goes to Charlottetown to-morrow, where a grand reception awaits him.

The Louisville Bridge.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 27.—One span of the bridge over the Ohio river, 370 feet long, was completed yesterday. This is the longest span of truss bridge erected in this country. The bridge will be finished in the early part of November.

Freshet in Indiana.

ALBANY, Ind., Aug. 27.—The dam at Fort Edwards was washed away, stopping all the mills, furnaces, etc. The repairs will cost $30,000. Loss of time to mills as much more.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.—The ground was broken at Corondelta, yesterday, for two more iron furnaces.

Circus Manager Shot.

The proprietor of the Lake Circus was shot at Green Bay, Newton county, Missouri, on the 21st, by a man whom he ejected from the circus for refusing to pay. He died in a few minutes. The murderer escaped. One thousand dollars is offered for his arrest.

The Bourse.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Rumors of the illness of Napoleon produced an excitement on the Paris Bourse, and carried up the price of gold here to 134¼. A reaction, however, took place.

Details of the Boat Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—A private dispatch from London says it is glorious weather and a light breeze. Loring is suffering from a boil. Another of the Harvards has the diarrhœa slightly. There is great excitement and a large crowd on the river. Betting on the race is heavy on Wall Street to-day. The forenoon papers publish comments on the race. The telegraph eulogizes Elliott's boat; it was light, fast and graceful. We do not expect that the Harvards can win the race, but changes made by them bring the crews more on a level. We think it will be a capital race, but the Oxfords will defeat their gallant adversaries without difficulty. If otherwise, the Harvards must have an ovation to show that we are not ashamed of our excellent cousins. The Star thinks the Americans are, individually, more powerful than the Oxfords, but it is thought their training is not according to the English notion of strictness.

The News says: Above all things we are anxious that the contest shall be sharp from first to last; that the victory on either hand shall be so hard to win as to cover winners and losers alike with glory, and to prejudge the issue would be impertinent in the last degree. The writer takes occasion to acknowledge to the fullest extent the disadvantages of the Harvards, who contend against the river and everything unfamiliar. The Oxfords, on the Charles river would labor under similar disadvantages.

The excitement to-day, over the great international boat race has been intense. The banks of the Thames have been lined with spectators since an early hour. The city has been almost deserted and business was quite neglected. Vehicles of all descriptions, bearing the Harvard or the Oxford colors, and heavily laden with people, crowded all the roads leading to the course. During the entire day the roads in the vicinity of Putney, Hammersmith, Cheswick, Barns, Mortlake, etc., were thronged with pedestrians. The railway companies found themselves almost unable to provide cars to carry the vast numbers waiting at the depots. It is no exaggeration to state that probable one million of people witnessed the race.

The Harvard crew, on toss for position, chose the Middlesex side, outside the semi-circle. Both boats started at 5 h., 14 min., 6½ seconds. The tide at the start was sluggish, and a slight southwest breeze prevailed, with smooth water. The Harvards were first to catch the water and took the lead, gaining rapidly on their opponents, and making forty-five strokes per minute against the Oxfords forty. At Bishop's creek, three furlongs from the start, the Harvards led half a length. Gaining headway they increased their lead, as they passed the Willows. Their pace was substantially slackened and the Oxfords piled up, but the Harvards were still three quarters of a length ahead at Craven Point, three-fourths of a mile from the start. The Oxfords now went on with a steady drag, but the Americans rapidly increased their lead. At Crabb Tree, the mile-post from the aqueduct, they were a couple of lengths ahead. Beyond here the Harvards were taken wide, and the Oxfords quickened speed and reduced the gap, at the Soap Works, and 1½ miles from the start, to half a length. The Harvards now pulled up with a magnificent burst, to Hammersmith Bridge a mile and three-quarters, but in shooting the bridge they lost the distance. When they gained the opposite middle of the mall, the Oxfords spurted and came up gradually to the Harvards, but when opposite Dawes, the boats were found to be too close together, and the Harvards gave way. At Cheswick, two and a half miles, the boats were level. After proceeding fifty yards further, the Oxfords began to gain, though temporarily, and the Harvards were again even with them. The Oxfords gained rapidly at Cheswick, where it was clear that their pace apparently told on the Harvards, who were rather wild at this part of the race. From this Oxfords rapidly drew ahead, and in a few strokes obtained a lead of two lengths. The Harvards, rowing pluckily, held them there for half a mile, when they fell astern. The Oxfords, at thirty eight strokes a minute, shot Barnes' bridge, three and five-eighth miles, three lengths ahead. Along Barnes' Reach the Harvards refreshed their stroke oar, Loring, with river water, thereby retarding the boat. The Americans tried a spurt, but found the effect ineffectual, the Oxfords getting more lead, and eventually winning the race by four lengths, easing up the last few strokes and pulling up fresh. The Oxfords arrived at the ship at five o'clock 36 minutes and 47 seconds, making four and one fourth miles in 22 minutes and 40½ seconds. The Americans were well received at the finish, and returning, landed at Barnes' bridge. The race was a good one, and excited a degree of enthusiasm along the banks of the river utterly unknown in races heretofore.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The result of the boat race was received by the English cable at the Associated Press office, in this city at four minutes past ten o'clock, just 23 minutes and one third of a second after the Oxfords arrived at Mortlake. The messenger was obliged to carry the dispatches three quarters of a mile, on horseback, part of the way through dense crowds to the nearest station.

Erie Republican vs. the Typographical Union.

ERIE, Aug. 27.—In the suits of the Republican office against the Typographical Union, for conspiracy and libel, the Grand Jury returned not a true bill in both cases.

St. Louis Dispatch.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 27.—A committee of revenue and marine officers meet here about the 20th of September, to consider the propriety of stationing a U. S. revenue steamer at this point.

A gentleman of this city recently received a letter from Chief Justice Chase, in which he says "I am out of all future political contests. No one need be jealous of me hereafter.

A new and costly Jewish Synagogue, one of the finest in the country, was dedicated here to-night with imposing ceremonies.

From Tennessee.

Horace Maynard, Hamilton and other leading Radicals, arrived this morning. They had a meeting in the afternoon, the object of which has not transpired. Various rumors are afloat that they are taking steps for a thorough organization of the party, and as a preliminary, demand the removal of all of Senter's officeholders in the State. Another is that that they contemplate, during Senter's absence, the seizure of the State Government, but that is hardly probable, as a majority of those present are members of the State Legislature.

The city is remarkably healthy for the season. Several sudden deaths from heat embrace nearly all the complaints.

Stabbing at a Picnic.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 28.—A party of three men engaged in a quarrel at a picnic, in Clarke county, yesterday. Mike Cuddy, an Irishman, stepped up to John Heibing, a German, and stabbed him in the back, inflicting probably a fatal wound. Cuddy escaped.

Later from the Boat Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Smalley telegraphs to the Tribune that the morning opened bright and clear, the absence of the English drizzle increased the chances for the Harvards' success. The crew passed a good night, though this morning Simmons showed signs of weakness from a severe attack of the diarrhœa, with which he had suffered for several days. Loring had been troubled by a boil, which was far from well; but most of the crew was in splendid condition and fully confident. When the word was given the Harvards' noted start came into play, for their oars took water first, making forty-three strokes per minute. The Oxfords made forty for one mile and a half. The race was splendid. The Harvards soon ran away from the Oxfords and kept the lead to Craven Cottage, a distance of three-fourths of a mile. The Oxfords drew up to a level just beyond Hammersmith Bridge. When off Cheswick, two miles and a half from the start, they gained the lead, after which they rowed as they liked. The Oxford crew never changed stroke during the race. The stroke of the Harvards was irregular; they lost from about Hammersmith, When off Cheswick they rowed to the pier, and although they pulled to the end of the hopeless race with magnificent pluck, and that long after their strength and control over their muscles had failed, the superiority of the Oxfords was manifest throughout. The race was never doubtful after the first half mile, though the Harvards retained the lead some time after that. The Oxfords won by four lengths. Time, 21 minutes and 30½ seconds.

The World's London special says the race is universally conceded to have been perfectly fair and honorable on both sides. The time occupied by the Harvards was twenty-two minutes and forty one seconds—more than they took only a few days ago. The distance rowed was a little less than four miles and three furlongs. The day was fair but the tide unfavorable. For the first two-thirds of a mile the Harvards were ahead by more than a length, rowing forty-two strokes to the Oxfords' thirty-nine. The Harvards' rowing was most brilliant. Many believe the race might have been gained, had the coxswain made better efforts to take the Oxfords' water. As the Hammersmith Bridge was passed, the advantage was still with the Harvards, but it was perceived that the pace with which they started could not be sustained, as the Harvards sank from forty-three to forty-two, and lower, while the Oxfords rose to forty strokes per minute, and maintained it without alteration to the end. Just before Cheswick was reached—about half way—the Oxfords made a splendid maneuver; the coxswain took the Harvards' water. All Burnham's efforts to escape the Oxfords were in vain. As the Cheswick Church was passed the Harvards were visibly distressed; Burnham throwing water over his stroke, and Simmons, on whom the labor and saltiness told heavily, was not relieved. The race was lost by the Harvards, though one more heroic effort was made to gain. When the gun sounded, the Harvard crew, after a moment's rest, drew up by the side of the Oxford boat, and applauded the victors by clapping hands. The Oxfords acknowledge this by taking off their hats. One of the various theories of the cause of the Harvards' failure is that their diet has been lately vegetarian, but the statement is not true. Loring is criticised for not having English teaching, and Burnham for bad steering, but many good judges declare that the race was almost a repetition of a race between the English Universities, and that the Harvards failed because their style is Cambridge.

Cuban Affairs.

HAVANA, Aug. 27.—During July and August no vessels of war of the United States have touched at Havana.

Intelligence is received from Los Tunos that Col. Benagosi, with an envoy, had reached that town safely.

A schooner, in the service of the Insurgent Government, recently landed a cargo of arms in Sevilla bay, in the southern part of the eastern department. The Spanish troops soon after captured the schooner and at last accounts were hunting for the arms, which had been taken into the Sevilla mountains adjacent to the bay.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—The tea ship Ayumeimon, from Haukow, June 9th, has arrived with the first cargo of the season.

The Star, in an article on the rejection of the American treaty by China, shows that the treaty secured substantial advantages for the Chinese, while the Americans disclaim any interference in their internal administration. It cannot be supposed that the Pekin Government is dissatisfied with the canon, but that a weak government should yield to the pressure from Minister Burlingame's enemies, is not surprising. It now remains to be seen whether Burlingame and Browne reflect the mind and purposes of President Grant.

The Standard thinks that the Chinese in refusing to endorse the agreement, shows that they are not animated by the principles which Burlingame declares that they possess, and hopes it will lead him to abandon functions which secure neither honor to himself nor benefit to the world at large.

The Pall Mall Gazette of this evening says if the Harvards are beaten it will be by the best crew ever seen on the Thames, and one which would make short work of the fastest Henry crew. There will be no need of fear but that the race will be rowed entirely on its own merits.

LONDON, Aug 27.—The Times has an editorial on the Erie Railroad scoundrels, denouncing the prostitution of justice, and the utter contempt for its administration. It hopes the consciousness of existing evils will lead to a way of correcting them.

LISBON, Aug 27.—The session of the Portugese Cortez closed yesterday. The King, in a speech, assured the members that the Government is making every effort to secure financial equilibrium and revive the public credit. The Minister would consider how to augment the revenues from imports, and diminish expenditures. He concludes that the independence of Portugal would be sedulously preserved.

PARIS, Aug. 26.—The official organ to-day states that the recent amnesty granted by the Emperor, does not extend to those who have been convicted of an attempt to take the life of the Emperor, or that of any other political person.

PARIS, Aug. 27.—The official journals denounce the statement that the Emperor's health is worse, on the contrary it is much improved, though not completely restored.

Gen. Prim has arrived in Paris.

ANTWERP, Aug. 27.—H Leeds, the artist, died to day, aged 54 years.

MADRID, Aug. 26.—The Government yielding to the pressure and solicitations from all parties, has commuted the death sentence of several Carlist clergymen, and there will probably be no executions. Answers are received from six bishops in regard to the recent decree of the regent. They are unsatisfactory and defiant. No further steps will be taken against them until Gen. Prim returns.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—A Tribune's London special says the following letter has been sent and will appear to-morrow:

"SIR. After it has been asserted for the last three weeks that the Harvard four are endeavoring to conform their style of rowing to that of the gentlemen they hope to meet in the race to day, will you permit us to say, in advance of the contest, that the assertion is groundless. We believe our style will be exactly that adopted by us at each of the last three annual races against Yale. Our stroke oar is aware of no change. The men who follow the stroke are aware of none, nor has there been any variation in our method of training or instructions. It is said, also, that the Americans will row in an English boat; that is equally incorrect. They will row in the boat built of Spanish cedar by an American builder, which we brought from home, and the lines of which are identical with those on the boat we rowed last year. If we may judge by the stress laid on these latter points in the English journals, they are deemed, as they appear to us, of some importance. We ask to place ourselves right in respect to them, so that whether we win or lose, the merit of our victory or the blame of our defeat may fall where it belongs.

Signed, WILLIAM BLAKIE,
Secretary Harvard Club."

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANSISCO, Aug. 28.—The Weekly Dispatch, a Democratic paper in this city, dies with this week's issue.

The Republicans held a large and enthusiastic mass meeting last night at the Metropolitan Theater.

Two Chinese merchants, who went to Chicago with the Commercial party a few weeks since, arrived home last evening and were received at Sacramento by a large number of their countrymen. At New York they were the guests of the Lelands. A. T. Stewart also entertained them at his palatial residence and took them to the theater, where they occupied his private box. They express themselves highly delighted with the Eastern States and the kindness shown them. They came down on the same train with Senator Schurz, and some of the gentlemen on board were surprised to hear Fung Tang converse with Germans in their own language. He speaks, besides Chinese and Japanese reeley and Duganne—How they Quarrelled.

The New York Sun tells the following, which so characteristic that one should know both arties to fully relish it:

During one of the sessions of the Constitutional Convention a remarkable incident escaped the attention of the stenographers. Every one knows that the Hon. Horace Greeley was one of the brightest ornaments of that body, but we are sorry to say he labored under the painful disadvantage of not having all his remarks reported. Many members of the Republican party asked the reporters of the Sun why Mr. Greeley and Mr. Augustine J. H. Duganne, the poet of the Despatch, pass each other, almost daily, without a greeting or single act of recognition. Both were leaders in the party in the days of its struggles and its triumphs, and they fought the Democratic enemy together on many a platform. Each, however, is now said to be the enemy of the other, and, it is said there is no balm in Gilead to heal their wounds.

The origin of this remarkable quarrel is found in a salutation intended to be harmless, but which pierced the sensitive soul of the eminent poet. It may be remembered that a motion was made by one of the delegates, calling for the adjournment of the Convention on every Friday, to enable the members to spend the Sundays in their homes. While the vote was pending, Mr. Duganne, on his name being called, shouted "Ay," because he desired to visit his family at least once a week.

The echo of the monosyllable had scarcely expired when Mr. Greeley, who sat near the poet, thus addressed him in a familiar tone:

"You d—d fool! don't you know how to vote yet?"

Duganne was thunderstruck. He knew that his old friend Horace disliked the proposition, but he did not dream that his hostility would take such a remarkable turn. The poet subsequently asked to be excused from voting, delivering a brief and significant speech in support of his application.

"Gentlemen," said the board, "I desire not to vote on the question, for I have omitted to consult the member from Westchester county, and he says I am a d—d fool who don't know how to vote of myself."

This sentence naturally created an excitement in the Convention. Mr. Duganne has not spoken to Mr. Greeley from that day to this.

About a month ago, however, a mutual friend named [illegible] was selected to bring about a reconciliation. In the performance of his noble mission he bore an olive branch to the Tribune office, but he had the misfortune to pay his visit at a time when Horace was meditating upon the fall of his beloved young friend, the Hon. John Russel Young, and he refused to receive it. The patient peacemaker called again but Mr. Greeley abruptly closed the door of negotiation by remarking, in childish treble:

"Well, he is a d—d fool to mind such a thing!"

The bearer of the olive, however, still hopes to unite the hands of the poet and philosopher; but he has made many visits for the purpose with[out] succ[ess].

The Finest City in the World.

Damascus [illegible] city in the world. Tyre and [illegible] on the shore; Baalbec and Palmyra in the desert; Nineveh and Babylon have disappeared [illegible] this Tigris and Euphrates Damascus [illegible] what it was before the days of Abraham [illegible] of trade and travel—an island of verdure in the desert—the [illegible] with [illegible] and mixed associations [illegible] thirty centuries. It was [illegible] that Paul of Tarsus saw the light above the [illegible] of the sun; the street which is called Strait, in which it was said "he prayed," still runs through the city. The caravan comes and goes as it did a thousand years ago; there is still the sheik, the ass and the water wheel; the merchants of the Euphrates and the Mediterranean still "occupy" these "with the multitude of their wares." The city which Mahomet surveyed from a neighboring height, and was afraid to enter "because it was given to man to have but one paradise, and for his part he was not willed not to have it in this world," is today what Julian called the "eye of the East," as it was in the time of Isaiah "the head of Syria."

From Damascus came the damson, our blue plums, and the delicious apricot of Portugal, called damascene, damask, our beautiful fabric of cotton and silk, with vines and flowers [illegible] upon a smooth, bright ground; the damask rose, introduced into England in the time of Henry VIII., the Damascus blade, so [illegible] the world over for its keen edge and wonderful elasticity, the secret of whose manufacture was lost when Tamerlane carried off the artists into Persia; and that beautiful art of inlaying wood and steel with silver and gold, a kind of mosaic engraving and sculptural [illegible] called damasking, with which [illegible] guns are ornamented. It is still a city of flowers and bright waters; the streams of Lebanon and the "silk of gold" still murmur and sparkle in the wilderness of the Syrian gardens.

The acceptance of the Democratic nomination for Governor was a matter of life or death to Geo. H. Pendleton. He would have been as dead as a salt mackerel if he had not accepted. He could not afford to regard his broken ankle or his personal comfort, if he proposed to be, in the politician's sense, a living man.

There is another man who has a solemn hour at hand in which to choose his destiny. We refer to Mr. Vallandigham. If he remains in his wigwam during this campaign he will be, on the second Tuesday of October, no matter how the votes may count out, a scalped savage. He has for a long time been accused by the staunchest Democrats of the State of cussedness and selfishness. He announced some time ago that he would not speak during this campaign, but he must reconsider that conclusion and reach another determination now. If he attends to his private business, he will be called a sorehead. If he refuses to speak for Pendleton, he will be denounced as having a [illegible] personal spite toward's Ohio's favorite son. He must become reconciled with Pendleton. In short, he is not a hard task. There are few men with whom it is more agreeable to become reconciled, than it is with Mr. Pendleton. He would, we are sure, receive Val. with courtesy and kindness, and treature comforts. Though all this might be as honey in the mouth of Val., it would be bitter in the belly, no doubt; but he must take his medicine like a man. The pill may be coated with elaborate sugar, but it must go down, or there will be no health in the patient.

GREELEY ON SENATOR CASSERLY AND HIS ANTI-CHINESE SPEECHES.—The N. Y. Tribune, of August 10th, says:

We try to honor all men and seek their good; yet among the kinds of men we find it hardest to admire, we accord a prominent place to the Irish Know-Nothing. Senator Casserly has been making another Democratic speech in San Francisco, to the effect that the Fifteenth Amendment must be defeated, or the Chinese will all become voters! True, no Chinese has yet sought naturalization; true, our treaty with China expressly stipulates that Chinese shall not be entitled to naturalization here; but Casserly says they will be naturalized if the Fifteenth Amendment shall be ratified. We earnestly advise Senator Casserly to persuade his Democratic brethren to stop stoning, clubbing, maiming and robbing the inoffensive Chinese, give them the right to testify in Courts and otherwise treat them as the Civil Rights' Act requires. If the Democrats persist in abusing the hapless and harmless Orientals, the Republic must protect them, even though this should render [illegible] ry their enfranchisement.

An Orthodox Voice for out of door Sundays.

"Penholder," who is understood to be the Rev. Edward Eggleston, of Chicago, writes to the Independent:

"I think it is clear that we can do one thing. We can cease to maintain that a poor, tired artisan, who lives in smoke and din and dust for six days, whose home is a self redeemed swamp or up three pairs of stairs—we must cease to teach that such a man may not rest on God's day by taking his yet more weary wife to walk in the green shade of Lincoln Park, in hearing of the splashing of the lake billows. Such a man cannot find rest except in such places. We talk of enforcing Sabbath laws against beer-gardens. I wish some law could be enforced against them. But alas! the beer-gardens could close the churches more easily than we can the gardens; for they are in the majority. Let us not be above learning of beer-gardens; for even Christ sent his disciples to school to the unjust steward, and we might learn some wisdom in our generation from the children of this world. Let us build some church gardens. Why can we not lay out small parks in and around the city, where tired men and women may see green leaves and worship God also? If such a park were under strict regulations, if the worship of God were conducted there in chapel or tent, or in the open air, and conducted with heartiness, and if a man might sit there and eat a basket of lunch with his family, how many might be kept from entire neglect of religion! Some years ago, Rev. C. G. Ames, who has since become somewhat noted as a Unitarian minister on the Pacific coast, was a tolerably obscure young man, holding an office in Minneapolis, Minnesota. But, with a true æsthetic eye, he selected Hennepin Island as a preaching place, and spoke to thousands under the green trees. Since he left, neither Orthodoxy nor the other doxy has imitated his example; but the workmen in the factories none the less seek the trees and the air on Sunday afternoons. How much better it would be for half a Sunday at least, to leave ninety and nine that stray not and go out to seek those who wander as sheep having no shepherd!

FIGHTING AND FREEDOM.—It seems that slavery cannot long exist in the fire of a heated civil war. What rebellion did for freedom in the United States, rebellion is doing for freedom in Cuba. The slaves of that island have been, or are being called into the field, and no man once recognized as belonging to the nobility of arms can thereafter be subject to the gyves. He would not submit to it, or if he would his fellow soldiers who had seen his valor and his worth tested in the crucible of battle, would not permit the country for which he and they fought, to place the galling chains upon his limbs. This manhood which bearing arms for one's country instills into the bosom of every patriot soldier, sweeps slavery from around them. [illegible] Freedom from her exile to [illegible] "Free Cuba" is free, or when [illegible] Cuba's conquered Cuba, slavery [illegible] and [illegible] be a thing of the past. The [illegible] and this civil war will have [illegible] to the point of view done will it [illegible] well!

WHITE'S NEW MAP OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY!

WEST OF THE CASCADES.

OLYMPIA, W. T., May 24, 1869.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY solicit subscriptions to enable them to publish a MAP OF WASHINGTON TERRITORY West of the Cascades, compiled from the United States Surveys and the best and latest authorities. The scale is four miles to an inch, making the map sixty seven by fifty one inches. In addition to the topography of the country, the map shows the extent of the Surveys, the Indian and Government Reserves, the Prairie lands, the soundings of the principal harbors, and many other particulars not given in previous maps. THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IS TEN DOLLARS; RETAIL PRICE, TWELVE DOLLARS. The map will be furnished, colored, mounted and complete, by August 1st. It was forwarded in March to the establishment of Colton & Co., New York, for publication.

Subscriptions may be forwarded to Joseph Cushman, Receiver Land Office, Olympia; W. C. Painter, Walla Walla; A. G. Cook, Vancouver, S. J. McCormick, Portland, who will receipt.

We call attention to the following endorsements

ENDORSEMENTS.

OLYMPIA, W. T., March 27, 1869.

C. A. WHITE, Esq.—Dear Sir: Having examined your original map, embracing that portion of Washington Territory west of the Cascade Range, I desire to add my testimony to its value. Having been engaged for a number of years in the surveys from Cape Flattery to the Head of Puget Sound I have examined this portion of your map more critically than others, and I take pleasure in vouching for its general correctness.

This map will fill a want that has long been felt, not only among the residents of this Territory, but others, who are desirous of obtaining information of this portion of the "Far West," and I trust that we shall soon see it in a form suitable for general distribution.

JAS. S. LAWSON,
Asst. U. S. C. S.

We endorse the annexed opinion of Jas. S. Lawson, Esq., and will add that Mr. Chas. A. White is a practical surveyor, and has had access to the township maps in the two Land Offices in this Territory, as also the Coast Survey charts; and we can vouch for his map of Washington Territory, west of the Cascade Range of Mountains, as being correct, and the only good map of the same territory that has been made.

GREAT COUNTRY.—The following dispatch from the North Pacific Railroad party to a Vermont paper speaks very flatteringly of the country through which the party passed. It sounds a good deal like George Francis Train, but it is difficult to give too great a coloring to a description of some parts of this great country:

IN THE SADDLE, July 21st, Lat 46, (half north, long 118 west, via Umatilla, Oregon, July 24th.)

On the trail to Montana, thermometer hundred and six in the shade. Passing through the grandest pasture in the United States, cut by clear streams and rolled with wheat fields, harvest fifty-seven bushels to the acre, weighing sixty-three pounds to the bushel. Cattle equal to Duchess county beef, yet never eat hay. Apples, pears, cherries, apricots and peaches, ripe; all fruits and vegetables of every kind perfect and abundant. All this, notwithstanding the severest drought in ten years. Insects unknown. The Northern Pacific route is beyond question the most inviting region in America for farmers, miners and manufacturers.

THOMAS H. CANFIELD

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—In this Court, Hon M P. Deady, Judge, on Saturday, the jury in the case of the United States vs. Carlo Quintano, indicted for selling liquor to Indians, returned a verdict of guilty. Time was granted until this morning to file motion for arrest of judgment or for new trial.

William Chi[illegible]n, C. H. Lewis and Henry Allen, Petit Jurors, for cause shown, were discharged for term.

U. S. vs. J. C. Gilbreth et ux, on motion of the District Attorney this cause continued to next term.

U. S. vs. W. K. Smith. The jury having failed to agree upon a verdict, this cause, by consent of the parties, was continued until the first Monday of March, 1870.

Court [illegible] until this morning.

I. O. O. F.—The members of the Rebeka Degree Lodge, I. O. of O. F., meet at their hall at Oregon City Friday August 27th, 1869, and Bro. Grand Master J. M. Bacon will [illegible] the Lodge under a dispensation granted and install the officers elect in their respective offices as follows: Bro. A. J. Apperson, N. G.; Sister E. B. Fellows, V. G.; Sister A. J. Apperson, Secretary; Sister J. P. A[illegible], P. S.; Sister L. Diller, Treasurer; Sister O. M. F[illegible] R. S. N. G.; Sister D. C. Ireland, L. S. N. G.; Sister C. N. Greenman, Conductor; Bro. S. D. Pope, Warden; Bro. L. Diller, O. G.; Bro. C. M. Kester, O. G.; Sister W. J. Caldwell, R. S. V. G.; Sister W. Fish, L. S. V. G. The name of the Lodge is Rebeka Degree Lodge No. 8, I. O. of O. F., and numbers about sixty members.

ROGUE WORSHIP.—Yesterday morning a crowd of Chinamen were collected on the sidewalk on Alder street, bowing and [illegible]ing around the carcass of a roasted pig. [illegible] off the tail and ears they placed them in a bowl [illegible]g a fluid of some kind over them, they would then empty it on the ground, all the time muttering over [illegible] (we suppose). The nature of their devotion we could not understand, but presume it was of a religious character. During the exercise the rain was pouring down upon the congregation, but it seemed to make [illegible]ers in the ardor of their blind and ignorant worship. We thought there was right here a good field for [illegible] people to act the missionary part.

OREGON SCENERY.—Although the scenery of the Columbia river has been frequently described, we give below [illegible] of the editor of the Pacific, of San Francisco, in regard to the wonderful natural sights between Vancouver and the Dalles. After passing up the Columbia [illegible]y: "California may boast of her great Oak trees; [illegible] of the vegetable world, but she must yield the palm [illegible]y to Oregon for grandeur of river scenery. [illegible] may pride herself on the splendor of her Hudson River views and her remarkable Palisades, but they [illegible] to Oregon than one of the old King's arms of [illegible]y memory is to a whole battery of Columbiads."

[illegible]—Yesterday's Unionist says Ex-Senator [illegible] has harvested and threshed 7,000 bushels of [illegible] present season.

[illegible]ns of young Hardy, who was killed at a saw-[illegible] on Friday, were taken to Buena Vista for [illegible].

[illegible] Council of Salem have taken steps to invite [illegible]d to visit their city, and have made [illegible] for his reception.

[illegible] for fall wheat has begun in the Waldo Hills. [illegible]. Hardy has lost a valuable [illegible]

[illegible]ures.—Rev. Dr. Wood[illegible] Washington Harris, born on the 23d of December, 1808 in [illegible] county, [illegible] miles south of Richmond and about [illegible] from Fi[illegible]s, as he says, will deliver a public [illegible] at Ora Fino Hall to-day at [illegible]. We be a team of "powerful skilful gallants," [illegible] the especial attendance of ministers, [illegible], lawyers and ladies. The agents of Drs. H. & [illegible] of Rest F[illegible]d, ought to be there. This is the first [illegible] series of 142 lectures on his way to the White [illegible].

[illegible]Owing to a misunderstanding betw[illegible]n [illegible] a mistake occurred in regard to the [illegible] of the jurymen in the case of the U. S. vs. [illegible] in the U. S. District Court, as published by us [illegible]. We have since learned [illegible] the six of the jurymen for conviction and six [illegible] when they came into court and were discharged, but that during their deliberations the vote in their [illegible] actually stood as published by us.

[illegible]—A printer at work in this city some[illegible] ill and has been lying in a critical [illegible]. His family is absent, but he is [illegible] cared for by his brothers in the "art preservative." [illegible]y last, one of their number circulated a [illegible] for the sick brother, which was [illegible] by the printers of the city. We [illegible] believe that printers are ever willing with their hands and purse to aid their fellows when in distress.

FIRE.—Henry M. Ellsworth, agent for John [illegible] line of stages at Kelton, on the Pacific Railroad, [illegible] Sheet the following rates of [illegible] Office, by his line, connecting with the boats of the C. [illegible] Navigation Company at Umatilla. These rates are in United States currency: Boise [illegible], $55; Owyhee City, $80; La Grande, $55; Walla Walla, $50; Umatilla, $35; Portland, $100; Fort Boise, 30c.

[illegible]ring the past three months there were added to the State Insane Asylum five persons, E. [illegible], Ah Lee (Chinaman), F. J. Herron, A. C. Loring, W. [illegible]. Four were discharged in the same time [illegible], J. C. Looney, J. C. Couch and Christ[illegible], and two died, Geo. Thrasher and George [illegible]. The whole number of State patients remaining in [illegible] is 106, 75 males and 31 females. Private patients 116.

[illegible]—By reference to a notice from Mr. Dufur, [illegible] for this county, it will be seen that he will [illegible] at the Court House to-day for the [illegible] the assessment roll for 1869. Now [illegible] time to have any errors that may have occurred in [illegible] or valuation of property. At this time [illegible] done without trouble, but hereafter it will require [illegible] to the Board of County Commissioners.

[illegible]S AND WHARF.—We notice quite a number of [illegible] at work on the Railroad bridge across the mouth of [illegible] creek opposite this city. The bridge is now [illegible] half finished and will be a very good [illegible]. Preparations are also being made for [illegible] of a temporary wharf just above the [illegible] which is to land the iron and other material designed to be used in building the road.

[illegible]The N. P. T. Company's steamship Gussie [illegible] from this place, for Victoria and ports on [illegible] on last Saturday at 6 P. M. She carried the following [illegible]gers: S Davies, J M Miller, J Ward, J [illegible], Miss M Witten, Miss C Myers, A Myers, A Co[illegible] Lee—, C Langley, G Anderson, B James, [illegible] Hon L H Boots, Mrs Balch, and 8 in the steerage.

A TENDERFOOT.—One of the new comers by the [illegible] from Hong Kong brought a letter certifying to his being a consistent Christian, that he had been baptized [illegible] years ago, and recommending the bearer to the [illegible] of all Christian people. The letter was [illegible] by Mr. Pike, Missionary, and was publicly read [illegible] the M. E Church last evening.

[illegible] Saturday evening a woman was picked up [illegible] of this city in a state of beastly intoxication, [illegible] she presented a very distressing spectacle as she [illegible] taken to the lock up. After arriving at the [illegible] she proceeded to use the most vile language in a loud voice, at times mingled with the most piteous groans and [illegible].

DUST.—The flying clouds of dust that have been [illegible] for a long time will likely not trouble us [illegible] for some time to come. On yesterday, "all day the [illegible] clouds drop their garnered fullness down," [illegible] what was dust became mud. Present indications [illegible] that the drought and heat of summer are over.

[illegible]—By the late dispatches it will be seen that [illegible] of the illness of his wife, Vice President Colfax has been compelled to tarry longer in California than [illegible] at first anticipated. This may delay his coming to [illegible], but it is hoped that he will not give up his contemplated trip to our State.

[illegible]—Several of our citizens with their families [illegible] have been absent from home for some weeks, in the [illegible], at the coast and elsewhere in search of [illegible] recreation, health, pleasure and game have returned. Most of them [illegible] glad to get back to the comforts of home.

[illegible]'s Row.—Sylvester Rice, the "Oregon Boy," and [illegible] of the Harvard Yacht Club, did not take part in the late race with the Oxford. Owing to some reason his place was supplied by another which may account for the defeat of the Harvards. Who knows?

GOOD OPENING.—We learn that there is a splendid [illegible] for any man who "knows how to keep a hotel" to invest, with a good prospect of profit, in an institution of that kind at McMinnville. A party with $7,000 or $8,000 would doubtless do well.

LARGE CARGO.—The Oriflamme arrived last Saturday morning from San Francisco, bringing one hundred and eighty passengers and over 700 tons of freight. This is the largest cargo arriving by one steamer for many months.

A HOG.—The Enterprise man, feeling indignant at [illegible] of the Register, on account of some article in the latter paper, has struck it from the list of his exchanges and says he "will never notice the Major again."

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

Hon. J. Francisco Chaves, the present delegate for New Mexico, is again the candidate for the Republican party, and his election seems to be certain.

Mr Boutwell has spiked a very small gun of the California Democratic press by ordering the transfer of $4,000,000 of coin to San Francisco for business purposes in the State.

The Pittsburg Mail says: "Chang and Eng, the Siamese twins, have an aggregate of seventeen children, but most of them belong to Chang, because Eng was absent part of the time.

We learn from the Charleston (South Carolina) News that an immigration agent there has contracted to deliver a large number of Chinese laborers next January. The planters are universally desirous of getting these cheap and docile laborers.

A despatch from Colonel Nelson at Camp Supply, to General Sheridan in Chicago, says that eighteen hundred Cheyenne Indians are drawing supplies from that post. This number it is believed includes all the Cheyennes south of Arkansas.

The New York Commercial says: "If Choy Chew (the Chinese speaker of Chicago), be a fair specimen of what an English or rather an American education can make of an original Chinaman, we only regret that about two-thirds of our public men were not natives of the Flowery Kingdom."

The Richmond Whig will have no vaunting of the Virginia election as a "Democratic victory." "If to have carried out in her late election," says the Whig, "a policy in which no single Democratic dogma, principle, or characteristic finds a place, makes her Democratic, then she may be so considered, upon the principle of lucus a non lucendo."

The N. Y. Sun gives some interesting facts about the famous Forrest divorce suit. It seems that Mrs. Forrest has received but $4,000 out of the $80,000 alimony paid by Mr. Forrest. The rest has been absorbed in costs and counsel fees, Mr. O'Connor, of course, taking the lion's share. Another illustration of the unprofitableness of litigation.

The Governor of the Territory of Wyoming has issued a proclamation announcing that an election will be held in said Territory on the 3d day of September next, for the choice of a delegate to the United States House of Representatives, and of nine members of the Council and thirteen members of the House of Representatives of the first Territorial Legislature.

We try to honor all men and seek their good, says the the New York Tribune, yet among the kinds of men we find it hardest to admire, we accord a prominent place to the Irish Know Nothing. Senator Casserly has been making another Democratic speech in San Francisco, to the effect that the Fifteenth amendment must be defeated or the Chinese will all become voters! True, no Chinese has yet sought naturalization; true, our treaty stipulates that Chinese shall not be entitled to naturalization here; but Casserly says they will be naturalized if the Fifteenth Amendment shall be ratified.

LADIES, TAKE NOTICE!!—MRS. C. LEVY has just received per steamer Oriflamme, via Pacific Railroad from New York, the first shipment of STAPLE and FANCY DRY GOODS for the Fall Trade; and as they are direct from first hands she is enabled to offer them at unprecedentedly Low Prices.

Use KANE'S IMPERIAL CONDENSED SOAP. It washes without rubbing. For sale by Allen & Lewis, Corbitt & McCleay, R. G. Sneath and all retailers.

WHOSE BOY IS THAT?—He may be seen any day, in almost any part of the town—he never makes room for you on the sidewalk, looks at you sneeily, swears smartly, if asked anything—he is very impudent, and often vulgar to woman who pass—he delights in frightening, and sometimes does serious injury to little boys and girls—he lounges on the corners, and is the first arrival at a dog fight or any other sort of scrapes, he crowds into the post-office in the evening, and multiplies himself and his antics at such a rate that people having legitimate business there are crowded out—he thinks himself very sharp, he is certainly very noisy—he can smoke and chew tobacco now and then, and rip out an oath almost any time; we ask whose boy is he? Mother, is he yours? We think he is, for there are many good qualities in the lad, and we do not think that you know what he does on the street. Look after him, mother, keep him more at home, train him, and you will have a son to be proud of some day.

Proposals for a Steam Tug.
WHEREAS, BY AN ACT OF THE LEGISLATIVE Assembly of the State of Oregon, to provide for placing a Steam Tug on the Columbia River Bar, approved the 28th day of October, 1869, the undersigned were appointed Commissioners on behalf of the State, to invite Proposals, and contract for placing and keeping upon the pilot grounds of said Bar a powerful Steam Tugboat of sufficient size, strength and motive power for towing and piloting vessels across said bar in all weather, when it can be crossed by the best class of steamers and sailing vessels.
The consideration which the State will agree to pay, as provided by said act, is the sum of $30,000 as follows: $12,000 for the first, $6,000 for the second, $5,000 for the third, $4,000 for the fourth, and $3,000 for the fifth year, in gold coin, payable quarterly; also, the towing and pilotage at $8 per foot draft for the first 12 feet, and $10 per foot for any excess above 12 feet—and a revocation of all other licenses for the aforesaid pilot ground
Bond and security for the performance of the contract is to be required of the contractors in the penalty of $30,000
Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the undersigned, on behalf of the State of Oregon are prepared to contract as aforesaid, and for that purpose hereby invite proposals—which will be received and considered until further notice, and none will be binding until accepted by the Commission

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 30, 1869.

Revenue Laws and Offenders Against Them.

It is a habit with the leading Democratic organ of this city to denominate the United States Courts as instruments of tyranny, whose practice it is to oppress, harry and despoil the people. This organ makes every new prosecution of offenders against the revenue laws an occasion for fresh animadversions upon the Courts of the United States and upon all the officers of the revenue. Alluding to a case recently tried in the United States Court here, it assumes that the defendant is entirely innocent, and that he is the victim of judicial injustice. As this case is to be tried over again we will not now give publicity to any of the facts concerning it as the same were developed during the trial; but if we were disposed to follow the precedent set by the Herald of commenting on cases still before the Court, we would show to the people of Oregon a record which would satisfy them that this case is not yet by any means closed. From the record we could furnish they could very easily make up their minds as to the deserv ings of the defendant, and could see, moreover, how an offender may sometimes obtain a temporary escape, through a mere technicality, from the consequences of his act.

It is to be expected that those who administer the laws will be censured and railed at by a class of persons who make a practice of preaching that it is not wrong, but right and meritorious, to evade the laws themselves. Those who habitually teach that the revenue laws are odious and oppressive, and who have no hesitation in declaring that any equivocation or evasion, even to perjury itself, is admissible if payment can thereby be avoided, naturally would not have much respect for a tribunal through which these laws were enforced. Such persons are the class who talk most about "tyranny," and exclaim in the loudest language that their "liberties" are being wrested from them. As a matter of course their denunciations fall upon the officers and tribunals by whom they are brought to account. John Milton described such a class, in words which will stand forever as a mirror in which, if they would but look, they could see themselves as they are seen of others. Speaking of the abuse he received in his day from a licentious set who were always prating of "liberty" without knowing the meaning of the word, he said:

> But this is got by casting pearls to hogs
> Who, wallowing in their own mood,
> And still revolt when truth would set them free.
> License they mean when they cry liberty.

It is complained that prosecutions for violations of the revenue laws are mainly directed against Democrats. We shall not stop to inquire whether this is true; nor shall we admit that Democrats, as a class, violate these laws more than Republicans do. But we need not look far to find a complete answer for the Herald on this subject. That paper has habitually taught its readers that these laws are a device for their oppression; that the taxes collected under them are collected for the purpose of paying a national debt that was unjustly and illegally made; that it would be desirable to repudiate this debt and get rid of taxation; that it is tyrannous to enforce the revenue laws or to call guilty to account for violating them; that no jury ought to convict a person brought to trial for such an offence; that perjury is not perjury when, by means of it the tax collector can be thwarted and the Government defrauded; that every collector is a robber who deserves the vengeance of the people, and that the Courts before whom delinquents are brought to account are nothing but engines of oppression. As this has long been the tone of that paper, it may be that it has succeeded in educating many of its party up to the noble plight of its own doctrines, so that they think it no offence but a positive merit, to get around the law, no matter what practice or device they employ for the purpose. Now let the Herald compare its own teachings with its present statement that no Democrats than Republicans are prosecuted for violating the revenue laws, and see if it cannot get a hint of the relations of cause and effect. If the dissemination of such advice does not produce a plentiful crop of frauds and prejudice it is because the seed does not fall upon ground which will bring forth such a devil's-crop of evil things. In other words, it is because the people have too much virtue to follow the bad advice which is given them.

If it be complained that this is a misrepresentation of the course of the Herald in respect to these things, we have only to appeal to the readers of that paper for proof of what is here written. The ground of its accusations against the United States Court are that the Court does not accept the code of morals laid down by that press as its guide; that that tribunal does not conform its action to the high standard of judicial duty which that press has erected;—in short, that the Court does not follow the fashion of that press and hold that persons accused of frauds upon the revenue shall not be prosecuted for their offence. By refusing to try any case of this description the Court would receive the unstinted praise of the paper mentioned, and would be hailed as a protector of the people, a guardian of their interests and a powerful muniment of their liberty.

Under the teachings of the licentious portion of the Democratic press, members of that party,—we hope such members are comparatively few,—have come to regard the payment of Federal taxes of any description not only as a pecuniary hardship but as a thing most distasteful and odious to their political principles. Therefore every time they affix a reluctant stamp or pay a grudged income they take the necessity of doing the act as an outrage on their political faith. Such a state of feeling is not at all favorable to honest obedience to law. Putting the matter on pecuniary grounds, Republicans do not like to pay taxes any better than Democrats. But there is no Republican who takes it as an insult to his political principles to be obliged to contribute to the revenue for the purpose of paying the debt; and we hope that Democrats of this class are fewer than might be inferred or supposed from the tone of their newspapers among us.

A correspondent of the Herald, whose style appears to be that of one of the former editors of that paper, concludes, like one of the mob addressed by Coriolanus, to "rub the poor itch of his opinion" by propounding a number of questions on this subject, the last of which are as follows:

> How long are our people to be harrassed, hauled from one end of the State to the other, and subjected to the annoyance and exposure of tedious trials upon the trumped-up charges of bullet-headed Puritan Internal Revenue officers? Is there to be no end to this Federal persecution?

We can reply that "our people" are to be dealt with, and should be dealt with, thus, just so long as any of them avoid complying with the law, as in this instance, and that the best way to prevent "annoyance and exposure" is for the citizen to comply with his duties and reject the pernicious advice by which some Democratic writers that we know of would induce him to violate the laws and get into a position where "annoyance and exposure" are certain.

Important If True.

A neighboring Democratic journal takes occasion frequently to informs us that the Republican party is breaking up. The days of the party, according to this authority, are numbered,—though the said authority omits to tell us where this information was obtained. The days of this vigorous organization have been numbered so often that it is difficult to keep the count. They were numbered in 1860, when its opponents appealed from the ballot-box to war. They were numbered after every battle in which the Union army was outwitted or outnumbered in the field. They were numbered in 1864, and again in 1868, and in both years there was some mistake in the reckoning. It is not worth while to place much reliance on those outside calculations. It has become very certain that the Republicans can suffer but by their own fault. They have every inducement of good faith, the confidence of the nation and opportunity for statesmanship never before enjoyed in a republic, to stand together till their work is finished. And this, in spite of little diversions, defections and reverses here and there, they intend to do.

In General.

We learn that J. W. Johnson has sold the Yamhill Courier to W. A. McPherson, who will hereafter issue it as a Republican paper. New material is to be added by Mr. McPherson, and a paper will be presented which, we doubt not, will be a credit to Yamhill and a helpful agent in the Republican cause.

The new Democratic paper at Corvallis closes a screeching article on the mongol with the statement that "the China importationists will do to watch." The Democracy of the South, then, are the chaps who will bear most watching, as they are the ones who are engaging most extensively in the importation of Chinamen.

Hon. Logan H. Roots, member of Congress from the First District of Arkansas, was here on Saturday and took passage on the Telfair for Victoria and Puget Sound. He is one of the Committee on Pacific Railroads, and is traveling through the country to see the "situation" for himself. Mr. Roots served with credit under Sherman during the war, and at the close of the struggle settled in Arkansas, from which State he has been twice elected to Congress. He is probably the youngest member of that body, and is a man of evident ability.

The Chicago Republican of the 19th August says: "A good fall trade,—many declare it will be an unprecedentedly large one—waits to follow the harvest home, now near at hand. A dull summer is to have this ending. There are no aspects of a panic. We shall have a good yield of other cereals, and of corn more than enough for speculative gambling. From all parts of the country advices reach us to this effect, and a few weeks more will see us in the midst of busy times. For this our merchants are preparing, and the voices of the croakers will be lost in the din of active trade. The real estate men are making ready for fresh activity in the fall, and the prospect is not an encouraging one for the views of those who have salted down something wherewith to buy after the panic, for there is to be no panic."

OREGON.

During the week ending August 26th, 21,476 bushels of wheat were received at Albany.

At Eugene City they have an "Inspector of Flues and Chimneys," who is appointed by the Council.

Stukely Ellsworth, Esq., Special Deputy G. M., I. O. O. F., instituted Arago Lodge No. 28, at Empire City, Coos county, August 19, 1869, with seven charter members.

The first number of J. H. Upton's paper, the Mercury, published at Corvallis, has made its appearance. In matter and style it compares favorably with other Democratic papers of the State.

The people of Corvallis are stirring themselves in the matter of immigration. At a meeting held on Monday night last, a committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements for forming a branch society to co-operate with the State Society in Portland.

The Farmer says: Some of the Trustees and friends of Wallamet University in this city are agitating the question of transferring that institution to the State, to be conducted as an Agricultural College. It is generally known that the University as at present conducted, is not self-sustaining, and it is thought by transferring it to the State, the Agricultural College and University funds will place it on a basis second to no other institution in the United States in point of financial backing.

From the Salem Unionist: We recorded yesterday the sale of the entire premises known as Starkey's stable corner, to Breyman Bros., by Mr. Henry Boon. We have to record to-day the further sale of the corner of the same premises fronting on Commercial street 46 feet, and 60 feet on Court street; then also on Court street, adjoining on the east, another front of 30 feet, extending back 50 feet, with further privilege of the use of yard in common. This valuable ground has been sold to Messrs. Cox & Earhart, who have it in contemplation to put up fire proof brick buildings thereon next season.

From the Albany Democrat: An amorous son of Vulcan, late one night last week, taking advantage of a husband's absence, applied at the door of a lady's room, at a hotel in this city, for admittance. The lady, who happened to be of Amazonian strength, opened the door, in her night dress, seized Vulcan by the nap of his neck and the slack of his trousers, and by sheer muscular force, hurled him violently across the hall, against a room opposite, bursting open the door and startling the inmates. Vulcan picked himself up, and uttering ejaculations more forcible than elegant, precipitately fled, fully convinced that he had "mashed the wrong passenger."

From the Corvallis Gazette: On last Monday, a party of immigrants, consisting of Messrs. A. and E. Goble, brothers, one from Kansas and the other from Missouri, with their families, passed through Corvallis. They left White Cloud, Kansas, on the 4th of May, and arrived at Oregon City on the 17th inst., with mule teams. They bring a lot of loose stock, and come to settle in the Wallamet valley. They were pretty well in the lead of immigration, and consequently cannot tell the extent of the same. They report Indian troubles both in their front and rear; their train escaped. After a little rest here, they intend going up to Eugene City.

Following are the particulars of the late fatal accident at Salem, as given by the Unionist: Taylor Hardy was the engineer at the Capital Lumbering Company's mill on the city levee, having occupied that position off and on for two years. Yesterday morning as he was adjusting the belt to start the supply pump, some belt on the main shaft caught his clothes, or they were caught by the belt, his body being whirled around with each revolution of the shaft, striking the timbers. Mr. Forsyth, who was assisting him, shut off steam as soon as possible, but it was too late to save his life. His remains were terribly broken. He breathed a few minutes but showed no consciousness. The Odd Fellows took charge of the remains, and sent for his friends in Polk county, above Independence. He was a member of Buena Vista Lodge. Mr. Hardy was about 22 years of age and a man of excellent character.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO AUGUST 28.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

New York News.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Colonels Ryan and Currier, leaders in the late Cuban expedition, have been held to bail, having returned from Canada.

The Fenian Congress, continued its session today. Two delegates from Ireland were introduced and made unfavorable reports.

Bacon Jasper Morgan, father of ex Governor Morgan, died at Windsor, Connecticut, to-day aged 87 years.

The right to use the fence surrounding the new postoffice site was leased to day for $1,500 for advertising purposes for two years.

The plate printers strike is not yet ended.

The Government has not relaxed its surveillance of the Spanish gunboats building in this city. Marshal Barlow has informed the builders that they will not be allowed to send them to sea.

The trot to day over the Prospect course, was won by Lady Thorne, in three straight heats. Goldsmith Maid second and American Girl third. Time 2 20¼, 2.20¼, 2.20¼.

Miscellaneous.

HARTFORD, Aug. 28.—Pliny Jewell, father of Gov. Jewell, died to-day, aged 72.

CHARLOTTETOWN, Aug. 28.—Prince Arthur arrived to night and was accorded a splendid and enthusiastic welcome.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—It is raining to-night for the first time in several weeks. Despatches from the South report storms.

Philadelphia Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—The first rain is now falling. It has continued twenty four hours.

The office of Receiver of city taxes was robbed last night of $30,000, $10,000 in greenbacks and the rest in bonds.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—The amount stolen from the Receiver of Taxes was $40,000, of which $25,000 were in checks, drafts, etc. As the law requires the Receiver to make daily deposits, it is supposed the security of the Receiver must pay the loss.

Arctic Explorations.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21.—The brig Helen, from Irighfal, Greenland, reports the steamer Panther, with Hayes' Arctic exploration expedition, sailed from Irighfal on June 27th, for Disco, Iceland, and North Greenland, whence the Panther is going to Melville bay. Previous to arrival at Irighfal, the Panther had been at Julian Shaab and Kassmursel, where the expedition had been in the interior taking photographs.

Fire at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28.—The National Hotel, in East St. Louis, a large frame building, was burned yesterday morning. Thos. Guinn was burned to death and several others badly injured from jumping from windows.

Suicide at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 28.—Mrs. A. M. Beck, a northern lady teacher, in the Avery Chapel Colored School, drowned herself and a colored baby by jumping into a deep well. She tried to destroy an older white child, but he ran away.

Tennessee Politics.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 28.—At the Republican meeting mentioned last night, Hon. John Trumble presiding, resolutions were adopted calling on Gov. Senter to convene an extra session of the existing Legislature for the purpose of taking action on the Fifteenth Amendment, there being no questions in the opinion of the meeting, of the constitutionality and legality of that body. The resolutions will be submitted to the Governor immediately in writing by Horace Maynard, chairman of a committee appointed for that purpose. A committee of eight, one from each congressional district, have prepared and reported a memorial to the people of the State and Congress, giving a history of the late canvass and election, showing that stupendous frauds were perpetrated, denouncing the election proclamation, denying the validity of the election, etc. The memorial don't ask for Congressional or Federal intervention.

Fire in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The kindling-wood establishment of Jones & Taylor, the carriage manufactory of Powers Bros., and several tenement houses in Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, were burned yesterday. Loss, $40,000.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Judge says the Harvards were only a half-length clear water behind at the finish. After the race the two crews dined at the Mott Lake with Mr. Phillips, who invited a large party to meet them. During the dinner Oxford's man in speeches said the race, if not the hardest, was at least as hard as any that ever was contested, and praised the pluck and work of the Harvards.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The press generally comment at length on the race of yesterday. The Times, reviewing the contest, say: The inferiority of the Americans was most pardonable. The steering of their coxswain undoubtedly lost them ground, though not enough to account for the distance between the boats at the end of the race. Before the Americans retrieve their defeat they must acknowledge that our style of rowing is the best. The Americans met with perfectly fair play, and if the Englishmen go to America, they will meet with similar treatment. May all our future international struggles be conducted in the same spirit, and whichever side may be vanquished have as little reason to regret their defeat.

The News declares that if the Harvards did not command success they deserved it, and hopes that American yachtmen on the Atlantic may avoid the double defeat of their countrymen.

The Star says the Americans will long remember the chivalry of bearing of their opponents, who, though resolved to win, never forgot that the Harvards were foemen worthy of their oars. If New England had won in the contest, the older country would have shared in the triumph of their descendants. As fate decided otherwise, we are sure the Harvards would rather be beaten by us than by any other nation on the globe.

The Pall Mall Gazette has the following on the race: To have beaten men whose pluck carried them three thousand miles to measure oars with the English university, whose patience surmounted the innumerable difficulties and disappointments in boat building, and whose endurance is almost unparalleled, is for Oxford one of those happy triumphs in which there is peculiar honor to the victor, without humiliation to the vanquished.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The Americans here are satisfied with respect to the conduct of the race. The general impression is that the Oxfords must row the Harvards in American waters next year.

The Telegraph says the race was as gallant and good a display of manhood as was ever witnessed in the history of rowing. The Americans lost no honor. Good judges regard them more highly than before the race. Other papers speak in a similar strain.

It is rumored to-day that one of the first questions which will be brought up at the next session of Parliament will be the consideration of the unconditional release of the Fenians without exception. It is said in the face of the French amnesty the Government will not be disposed to offer any strong opposition if the subject is properly and influentially supported.

The weather throughout England continues fair and favorable for gathering crops.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The alarming rumors recently started concerning the Emperor's health are officially denied. This morning the symptoms of his rheumatic affliction grew more favorable. An investigation has been ordered to discover the authors of the false report.

MADRID, Aug. 28.—The Epoca says that the most popular candidate for the Spanish crown is Augustus of Portugal.

There will be more trials by council of war for conspiracy against the life of Prim.

At Barcelona there is a movement on foot to make Serrano King of Spain.

Gen. Cauba has been appointed Lieut. Gov. of Cuba.

Escalante is dead. There is much speculation here regarding Gen. Prim's journey to Paris. It is supposed the object is to correct Asalogaza's deficiencies and confer with Napoleon on the situation.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The Chinese Embassy departed for St. Petersburg of the 12 of September.

HAVANA, Aug. 28.—Andrew White, an American, who has been confined for seven months was released on the intercession of Consul Plumb.

The Eugene Guard says: A little son of Thos. Harris, Esq., of Lost Valley, while taking a gun which was from its rack, allowed the hammer to catch in such a manner that the gun was discharged and the charge of shot passing through a partition, entered Mrs. Harris' thigh, causing a very painful wound. We are informed by Dr. Sharpless, who was called in, that about thirteen shot entered the flesh, and all but two passed out. The Dr. tells us that the wound is a painful one, yet there is no probable danger of serious results.

ANDY DESERTED.—The Democratic papers of Tennessee having succeeded, partly through Andy Johnson's aid, in securing a majority of the Legislature, now refuse to recognize Johnson's claim for the United States Senate. The Memphis Avalanche tells him plainly that retirement is the place from which he can best vindicate himself against political enemies.

THE LAST RAIL.—An article in the Overland Monthly for September on the Pacific Railroad has this:

"One fact, which I have not seen noted, forcibly impressed me at the laying of the last rail. Two lengths of rail, fifty-six feet, had been omitted. The Union Pacific people brought up their pair of rails and the work of placing them was done by Europeans. The Central Pacific then laid their pairs of rails, the labor being performed by Mongolians. The foremen in both cases, were Americans. Here, near the center of the American continent, were the united efforts of Europe, Asia and America—America directing and controlling."

The New York Democrat calls upon the House of Representatives to "impeach Grant," a piece of advice which will be heeded to with all the respect it deserves.

WM. R. SEWALL and J. B. SPRENGER

Take this method of informing their friends, the travelling public that they have disposed of their interest in the Western Hotel, and after will continue to manage the COSMOPOLITAN, which in the future as in the past will always maintain its reputation as the BEST and only FIRST CLASS HOTEL in the city.

THE EQUALIZER!

Treating Disease by Vacuum!

DR. H. A. BODMAN

HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county, would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat successfully those Chronic cases on whom all other means of cure have failed.

Having used this Instrument in connection with his former practice for about three months, he is satisfied that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in curing Chronic Disease. He does not believe in the system of debilitating cases cured but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, Spasms, Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, Obstructed Menstruation with all their concomitant Diseases, Impotency and all kinds of weaknesses of the Generative Organs. Spermatorrhœa confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.

He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone, and health, and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation through every part of the system.

Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by thousands of physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.
